Welcome to GameScript!

This is our hub where you can access our games!

We only have one game ready for you to play, please feel free to follow us on social media for updates!

About Us

GameScript is a hub for simple games made using JavaScript, no heavy downloads and all of our games are free to play!

In the future, we look to provide our users with the ability to purchase points in order to play premium versions of our games and win prizes!

We currently only have one game set up ready for you, which is our blackjack game which you can play here!
